Right, breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

By Peter M. Herold

Glen Smedley was home over Sunday. Roads are quite dusty along the R.
Mail route.

Oats harvest is now in full sweep and will be about completed this week.
Hiram Coats and Miss Rhona Eys-were here Sunday from New Castle, Ohio.

The Mathey reunion at Southern rk last Saturday was largely attended.

Joe, Frank and Pete Candler are working in a mine at New Philadelphia.

Prof. E. S. Freed, wife and son of hard are on a two weeks' trip up a great lake.

Richard Wilkinson is in the Hocking valley counties selling goods for the Stonia Tool Co.

Elmer Johnson and wife (nee Mary Hugh) of Leontonia spent Sunday with relatives here.

letter failed to reach its destination in time for use in today's patch. The correspondent and blisher much regret not to be able give all the Washingtonville news usual.

State Senator William Green of Columbiana who is well known here is connected with the united mine pickers, was last week appointed secretary and treasurer of the national organization by John P. White, president of the U. M. W. of A. Mr. Green already assumed his official duty at Indianapolis, Ind.

H. W. Balkert, who bought the Josphederick homestead just east of school grounds and adjoining the n hall. He will occupy it as a dence. It stands high and dry, can be approached from all sides; as a commanding view overlooks the erie spot, being one of the desirable residence locations in the village. When "Balk" is not delivering goods, he has inherited the oy faculty of enjoying life at home his family.

the best known and most highly esteemed residents of Beaver township, died last Friday morning at his home in this place after an illness of five weeks with dropsy and heart trouble.
His age was 60 years. Mr. Bare was long active in church work, having first affiliated with the Mennonites but in later years united with the Methodist church. He was always to be found where good could be done for his fellowmen and his words of advice in The Mahoning Dispatch, for which he was long the valued local correspondent, will be remembered by the people of this community. His was the kind of life that is a rule and guide for others to follow. Those who knew him best will ever cherish his memory. Surviving him are his wife and four children who have the sincere sympathy of the entire community in their great loss. The children are Mrs. Henry Nelder of Colum-biana, Elmer and Warren Bare of
